Interdisciplinary Fellowships at Yale University

FOR SENIOR FELLOWS AND POSTDOCTORAL ASSOCIATES

Each year, the Institute brings a group of Fellows from around the world to join its community of scholars and practitioners, normally for a one-year term. The ISM Fellows are scholars, religious leaders, and artists at all career stages whose work is in or is moving to the fields of sacred music, liturgical/ritual studies, or religion and the arts. Scholars in the humanities or the social or natural sciences, whose work is directly related to these areas, are also encouraged to apply.

Fellows undertake a substantive project of original scholarship or creative work. These projects, which must relate to the Institute's mission, are adjudicated on their significance and quality.

Fellows have the opportunity to pursue their scholarly or artistic projects within a vibrant, interdisciplinary community, and they may have the option to teach.
