Summer Language Study Grant Request

(up to $3,350)

The ISM provides a grant up to $3,350 to defray costs for summer language courses, including the summer following a student's graduation. For a Yale language program, the grant is applied directly to the student's tuition bill. In the case of language study at other universities in the U.S. or abroad, reimbursement is given when the costs are incurred. Students should submit a transcript with a passing grade when the course has been completed. For language study outside of New Haven, the ISM reimburses only up to $335.00 for housing and travel. The maximum total grant is still $3,350. No other expenses are eligible for reimbursement. To apply, please submit this form and a copy of course description and tuition rates to Rachel Segger in Miller Hall (Rm. 201) or by email (rachel.segger@yale.edu) no later than May 13.
