2023–2024 season

Choral Auditions

August 29–September 2, 2023

IN-PERSON AUDITION INFORMATION
Singers are invited to prepare a short solo song or aria (accompanyist provided). Singers will also be led through a few simple vocal exercises demonstrating range and musicianship skills. Only one audition is required to be considered for membership in multiple ISM choral ensembles.

For audition times and details, scan here or visit ism.yale.edu/auditions

Yale Camerata
DR. FELICIA BARBER, CONDUCTOR

Choral ensemble of approximately 70 singers, with a special commitment to new choral music, open to experienced singers from the Yale and New Haven communities.

2023–2024 performances include a fall concert in October, the annual Advent concert in early December, a combined concert with the Yale Glee Club in February, and Benjamin Britten’s War Requiem with the Yale Symphony Orchestra and Yale Glee Club in April 2024.

Course credit available to graduate students.

ism.yale.edu/camerata

Yale Schola Cantorum
DAVID HILL, PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR
MASAAKI SUZUKI, PRINCIPAL GUEST CONDUCTOR

Internationally renowned chamber choir, performing sacred music from the 16th century to the present day, with a special interest in historically informed performance practice. Open to all Yale undergraduate, graduate, and professional students. Singers earn pay.

2023–2024 repertoire includes major works by J.S. Bach, G.F. Handel, Herbert Howells, Judith Bingham, Caroline Shaw, and others.

ism.yale.edu/schola

Yale Repertory & Recital Choruses
CONDUCTED BY YALE GRADUATE STUDENTS

Chamber choruses with eclectic repertoire, led by current conducting graduate students. Recitals and concerts throughout the year.

Open to all Yale undergrad, graduate, and professional students.

Singers earn pay or course credit.