Yale Institute of Sacred Music
2018–2019 Colloquium

Topic Proposal Form

After your group has been approved by the faculty, please use this form to submit your detailed topic proposal (including bibliography) to Jacqueline Campoli at the ISM reception desk by Friday, April 27, 2018. (Only one form per group, please.) Refer to the Colloquium Guidelines on the ISM website at http://ism.yale.edu/academic-life/current-faculty-students.

Student 1: _______________________________________________________________________

Major and Degree: _______________________________________________________________________

Student 2: _______________________________________________________________________

Major and Degree: _______________________________________________________________________

For groups of three only:
Student 3: _______________________________________________________________________

Major and Degree: _______________________________________________________________________

Preferred semester for presentation: Fall 2018__________ Spring 2019___________

1. Proposed Title of Presentation:

2. Topic. Write a short paragraph explaining your topic, thesis and methodology. (Use reverse side if necessary.)

3. Indicate your two ISM advisors (one Music and the other in Divinity).

4. Please attach a bibliography of readings, pieces, works of art and/or recordings that will aide you in your preparation.

5. Please indicate coursework (if any) in which you have been, are, or will be enrolled that will relate to this topic.

Advisor 1 Signature: _______________________________________________________________________

Advisor 2 Signature: _______________________________________________________________________

Colloquium grants of up to $500 per student may be requested in preparation of this presentation. Students may apply for this grant by submitting the application form available on the ISM website following approval of their topic proposal.