Music Director/Conductor

The Huntington Choral Society is a 75 to 100-voice community ensemble in Huntington, Long Island, NY. Our repertoire focuses on classical choral works ranging from the Baroque to pieces by living composers, with occasional concerts featuring Broadway or opera pieces. We typically present two major concerts each year with orchestra or keyboard. For example, last season we performed Handel’s Judas Maccabaeus with orchestra and Carmina Burana with two pianos and percussion. We also present an annual Messiah sing-along.

We rehearse Monday evenings at Huntington High School, which is the current venue for our concerts as well. Typically there are 15 two-hour rehearsals for each concert (Winter and Spring) with one dress rehearsal.
