St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Bristol, Rhode Island

Organist/Choir Director position

15-20 hours per week.
Compensation: $18,000 - $20,000 per year to begin (commensurate with proficiency and skill); compensation may increase as the tenure develops.

* Immediate Supervisor: Rector or Priest-in-Charge

Job Description: Provide music selections and choir leadership for:

- One 10a Sunday service each week including prelude and postlude.
- Christmas and Holy Week. Additional planning and choir practice before major days e.g. Ash Wednesday/Lent.
- One choir practice midweek 7p-830p.
- One choir practice Sundays 9am-945am.
- In consultation with the Rector*, select hymns & service music for each Sunday, and do worship planning for the month and liturgical season.
- Select and teach anthem for Sundays when the adult choir is singing (Sept-June); RSCM choristers also sing anthems which are selected and directed by their Director.
- Attend weekly staff meetings.
- Additional compensation is paid for funerals and weddings according to AGO guidelines.
- Purchase music/supplies provided in church budget.

Organist/Choir Director will be permitted to use church facilities (organ, piano) for private teaching.

Further details: stmichaels@fullchannel.net, 401-253-7717
399 Hope St, Bristol RI 02809

St Michaels 1718-2018 : 300 years of worship and service to the community